CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER --Jesus knows that the Pharisees were seeking to entrap him and he does not allow it. Government has a role to play, but God's role is always more central and important. A question that arises from this Gospel is: Do we live in a way that reflects the primacy of God in our lives? Do our lives show God's values regarding sharing our gifts and resources in the world? Do the poor have a place of primacy in our consciousness, as they do for God? What is one thing we can do this week to let the poor have a privileged place in our life and consciousness?

CATECHESIS ON HUMAN LOVE

CERTIFICATION -- To fulfill the diocesan policy regarding qualifications for catechists speaking on the sensitive subject of human sexuality and chaste living, Catechesis on Human Love certification was created. This certification offers the wisdom of the Church to educate on human love and sexuality, which helps to understand the human person in a way so radically different from the current culture. Classes are open to all adults and can be taken for certification or personal information. Contact the Office of Pro-Life Activities and Chaste Living at (512) 949-2486 or e-mail yvonne-saldana@austindiocese.org for information.

PROJECT RACHEL is a compassionate and confidential ministry that helps women and men suffering emotionally and spiritually from the trauma of abortion. Project Rachel retreats are offered throughout the year at private locations. Register confidentially at (877) 932-2732 or project-rachel@austindiocese.org. The next retreat is scheduled for Oct. 24-26, 2014.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE is a community-based campaign that draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three-point program: Prayer and fasting, constant vigil and community outreach. This is a national campaign in which there is constant vigil outside abortion facilities for 40 Days, at least 12 hours each day. The campaign takes place now through Nov. 4. Call (512) 296-2071 or visit www.centraltexascoalition.com for more information.

Rachel's Reflections -- "When the tally is tabulated, when all the mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts, uncles, friends, siblings and health professionals involved in or affected by an abortion are calculated, the number of abortion-affected people in our midst is overwhelming. Consider on any given Sunday morning as you look around at the people of your church, count every third woman. Count every third man. Consider their parents; take into account their children. We have scores of people suffering silently in our midst because of a past abortion." - Mary Comm, Secret Sin: When God's People Choose Abortion If you or someone you know has experienced an abortion, we can help. Please contact Project Rachel at (877) WE CARE 2 or project-rachel@austindiocese.org. Additional information is available at www.austindiocese.org/projectrachel. Our next retreat is scheduled for Oct. 24-26, 2014.

MARK THE DATE --- Cemetery Services will be held at 3 p.m. on October 26 at the St. Mary's Cemetery.

Family Connection ---Payment of taxes is unlikely to be a disputed issue in your family. Yet families can still learn something from this Gospel reading. Jesus' answer to the Herodians and Pharisees redirects their question to focus on the issue of greatest importance: loving and honoring God. Taking this perspective can help us make good judgments about the competing issues of importance in our lives. As your family gathers, make a list of the activities that your family spends time doing together, such as household tasks, jobs, academics, and recreational activities. Talk about the importance of each of these activities. Ask what would happen if there were an imbalance in our attention to these activities and we spent too much time on one activity at the expense of another. In today's Gospel Jesus reminds us of the necessity of giving things their proper importance. Read Matthew 22:15-21. The Herodians and Pharisees were giving too much importance to the issue of the payment of taxes. Jesus reminds them that loving and honoring God is of greater importance. In family life we do many important things, but we remember that God is of the greatest importance in our lives. Pray together that your family will learn to keep things in proper perspective, remembering to keep God first in your lives. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 96.
