Our grandchildren are growing up in a desperate moral and spiritual climate in which they must navigate a world hostile to truth. Satan has launched an aggressive attack on our families, schools and our nation to desensitize our children to truth and righteousness. Perhaps at no other time in our history is a call to prayer more urgently required for our grandchildren than today. As grandparents, God has given us a sacred trust – an opportunity to imprint another generation with His love and faithfulness. Therefore, we must stand on the power of prayer to keep the hearts and minds of our grandchildren from falling captive to the enemy's deception. This is a spiritual battle and prayer is our most powerful weapon. During the last four years, thousands of grandparents have united on National Grandparents Day, the Sunday following Labor Day each September, to make it a Day of Prayer for their families. Today we have yet another opportunity to link arms in prayer across this nation and around the world. Will you help us in this cause?

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

CORNER The family of faith can never turn a blind eye to the socioeconomic inequalities of those who are suffering among us. If we belong to Christ, we must always express a special concern for the marginalized. Expressing concern places our faith into practice as the epistle of James reminds us, "Faith without works is dead."

Someone in the Hospital???

Because of new right-to-privacy regulations, the hospitals are no longer able to notify the Church office about patients in the hospital. If a member of your family is in the hospital or is ill and would like to see a priest, please call the parish office.

Grandchildren are the hands by which we take hold of Heaven

Life is short, live it. Love is rare, grab it. Anger is bad, dump it.
Fear is awful, face it. Memories are sweet, cherish it.

Family Connection

Peter had expectations about what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah, the Christ. Jesus was indeed the Messiah, but his life and death would show a different understanding of what it means to be the Messiah. We, too, have expectations of God and our own ideas about what we think God ought to be doing in our world. Like Peter, however, we may risk limiting our image of God by thinking only in human ways. God's plan is always more that we can ever imagine.

As you gather as a family, talk about what we expect God to be doing in our world and in our family life. Then read today's Gospel, Mark 8:31-35. Why do you think Peter was so upset by what Jesus was saying? Notice how Jesus reprimands Peter. Do we sometimes forget to let God be God for us? That is, do we sometimes get discouraged because God doesn't act in our world in the ways that we expect? Pray together that we will remember that God is always working for the world's salvation in ways that are beyond our imagination. Conclude by praying together today's psalm, Psalm 116.
