CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER Jesuit Father Vincent Donovan was a missionary to the Masai in Africa and wrote about his experience in proclaiming the Gospel. One of his insights was the centrality of forgiveness in Christian doctrine. The Scripture readings today speak of God's willingness to forgive both the strong and mighty as well as the least and most lowly. God forgives freely and lavishly and desires to reconcile all. Do we seek God's forgiving love? Do we forgive others as we have been forgiven? Are we God's ambassadors of reconciliation to those in need of love, mercy and compassion?
